Press and Praise for Wayne

Wayne instinctively tailors his craft for the corporate world. He has worked with me on many projects including events hosting, training support, business simulation role playing and more. I know I can rely on him 100% . I have no hesitation in recommending his services to any organisation

Jeremy Blain, CEO PerformanceWorks International

"Triple threat singer with the sounds and style of Sinatra himself. I felt like I was transported back to Ceasars Palace, Las Vegas. Wayne Devlin is a talent to watch out for."

Simon Gross-Aka Showbiz

"If you've not heard Wayne Devlin sing then I highly recommend that you do. He's an amazing talent."

Jimmi Harkishin

"If there is hope for the future and having the delivery of beautiful music - Devlin is the delivery man."

*Gaye Blann,
Las Vegas Entertainment Guide*

"Wayne has performed at a number of our events and never fails to impress guests with his amazing voice. He adds an element of fantastic and we wouldn't hesitate to recommend him to our clients".

Emily Jennings, Events Director

ENTERTAINMENT TODAY
THE EVENT SPECIALISTS

"Wayne Devlin, what a good guy, it's a great song. (What Colour Is The Wind) Love it. I applaud and support all he does".

Ian McShane

"Wayne Devlin has performed for us on a few occasions. For a huge charity event at Bolton Football Club and we hired him again to sing Tyson into the ring when he was to fight Haye. A true gentleman and fantastic singer"

Peter Fury

"Wayne Devlin is regarded as one of the finest rat pack vocalists in the U.K."
